PNB STRENGTHENS INCLUSIVE WORK CULTURE THROUGH BUBUR
LAMBUK PROGRAMME AND INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY CELEBRATION

Kuala Lumpur, 11 March 2026 – Permodalan Nasional Berhad (PNB) today organised two programmes highlighting the values of togetherness and appreciation for its employees - a bubur lambuk preparation programme and an International Women's Day celebration, both held this morning at Menara Merdeka 118.

PNB President and Group Chief Executive, Dato' Abdul Rahman Ahmad, joined PNB employees in the gotong-royong bubur lambuk preparation programme as part of an initiative to foster teamwork and a culture of sharing among members of the organisation.

In a separate event, PNB also celebrated International Women's Day in recognition of the contributions and important role of women in driving organisational excellence. The celebration also served as a platform to acknowledge the leadership, dedication and achievements of PNB's female employees.

Both programmes reflect PNB's continued commitment to nurturing an inclusive workplace environment, appreciating diversity and strengthening relationships among its workforce.
